D and D House Moving company from Palmer moved their first colony barn last Monday. The barn was built in 1935 by long-time resident Johan Johnson and was bought by Lerol Heaven. Heaven saved the structure from certain destruction as the previous owners were planning to tear it down due to subdivision.